TUESDAY'S ELECTION

Democrats Still Believe Official Figures Will Show Party Has Triumphed.

Washington, Nov. 7.—Officially Acting Chairman Homer S. Cummings of the Democratic National Committee still claims that the Democrats will hold the Senate and organize the House. His statement was issued after hours of earnest and anxious combing of the situation at a conference of administration leaders and party managers at Democratic headquarters.

Secretary to the President Joseph P. Tumulty spent the entire afternoon with the political advisers of the administration.

Acting Chairman Cummings said the Democrats would hold the Senate and organize the House. No figures were given.

Having experienced practially two days of trying uncertainty and doubt during the Wilson Presidential election of 1916, it would require nothing short of an actual roll call of the next Senate nad House to get a concession from any Democrat leader at this stage.

The party leaders recalling the ordeal of two years ago are hoping that revised and corrected returns will save the day for them as they did in 1916.

GRAND THEATRE

At the Grand Theatre the matinee advertised for this afternoon was omitted, the film of "Tarzan of the Apes" having failed to arrive from Richmond. Should the film arrive late this afternoon "Tarzan" will be shown tonight. If it does not arrive the managers of the Grand promise a good show at popular prices.

A handsome city service truck, just purchased by the fire committee of city council,, at a cost of $6,450 has just been received by the fire department. Today the apparatus was given a test before being accepted by the city.

The truck is finished in gold and red and is known as type 14-4 cylinder motor driven city service truck.

This piece of apparatus is a valuable addition to the fire fightng apparatus of the city. It contains eight ladders the longest of which is 55 feet. The other ladders are the following lengths, 35, 30, 28, 25, 24, 18, 12.

APPEAL FOR WAR STAMPS

Special Statewide Campaign Urged by Governor Davis

The following has been issued by Governor Davis:

"During the period of November 5-9, inclusive, will be conducted a special State-wide campaign for the sale of war savings stamps in Virginia, and I earnestly urge every person in the commonwealth to purchase one at least of these little government sesurities.

"In buying war savings stamps to the full extent of our respective means, those of us here at home, who are denied the privilege of service overseas, can materially aid our gallant sons at the front. Without adequate funds the government cannot send our boys the food, clothing, guns, ammunition and other supplies necessary to enable them, together with our allies, to bring the war to an early and victorious end.

"Virginia has a proud record in this war, as in all wars in which her sons have fought, and we must not fail to take the State's full allotment of war savings stamps During the days. November 5-9, let's go "over the top and get 'em," each Virginian with a war savings stamp!

"Westmoreland Davis,
"Governor of Virginia.

GERMANY SURRENDERS

WORLD WAR IS OVER---ALLIES DICTATORS

ARMISTICE TERMS ARE VIRTUALLY SAME AS THOSE SIGNED BY AUSTRIA PROVIDING FOR THE OCCUPATION OF A LARGE NUMBER OF TOWNS BY THE ALLIES—IT IS EQUIVALENT TO AN UNCONDITIONAL SURRENDER—FINAL PEACE TERMS PROBABLY WILL BE DECIDED AT THE HAGUE.

FIGHTING, at 2 p. m. Paris time, at 9 a. m. our time STOPPED.

Germany and the allies signed an armistice at 11 o'clock today, hostilities ceasing three hours later.

As Marshal Foch's terms are known to include provisions which will prevent resumption of hostilities the greatest war of all times has come to an end. Germany by the terms of the armistice is stripped of all power to reopen the war.

LONDON,—Germany has agreed to the armistice terms laid down by the allies. It is understood the terms are virtually the same as those which were signed by Austria, providing for accupation of a large number of towns by the allies, demobilization of the enemy armies and turning over a large part of army and navy equipment—practically an unconditional surrender to the United States and associate powers.

Signature of an armistice does not mean signature of the final peace terms. These will be decided at a conference, probably at The Hague.

But the agreement of the Kaiser's chiefs to the armsitice conditions of the allies means the stripping of the enemy of such a great part of his military power that he will be virtually at the mercy of the allies, and will have to accept their dictates as to peace agreements.

The fire engine bells and the siren whistle at the plant of the Virginia Shipbuilding Company plant let loose shortly after 1 o'clock this afternoon to let the people of Alexandria know that the great world war is over. The news was received here with great rejoicing. Several thousand Alexandria soldiers are now in the army and hundreds are overseas giving battle to the Huns and the news of the surrender of Germany was a source of great satisfaction to the mothers, wives and other relatives of the men now in the service.

CELEBRATE VICTORY OVER GERMANY

The sixteen hundred employes of the plant of the Virginia Shinbuilding Corporation were this afternoon at 3 o'clock given a holiday until tomorrow morning in in order to celebrate the victory over Germany. Many of the employes who live out of the city departed for their homes.

ALLIES ARE NEAR GHENT

Meuse Line Pushed Steadily Northward Despite Resistance.

With the American Forces on the Sedan Front, Nov. 7.—American troops yesterday afternoon were fighting within sight of Sedan, famous for the great battle fought in the Franco-German war in 1870. From the hills in the region of Chemery and Maisoncelle, where the Americans, according to last accounts, were advancing despite stubborn resistance, the buildings of Sedan are in plain view, being about six miles away.

American troops continued the advance today between the Meuse and the Bar, moving forward at one place more than three miles. They reached Chemery, 7 1-2 miles south southwest of Sedan, and east of that place the lines run through Maisoncelle, Flaba and the Bois du Fond de Limon.

On the west bank of the Meuse the Germans have been driven entirely from the Bois de Hospice, two miles north of Beaumont. Along the heights of the Meuse in the region of Sassey and between Milly and Dun the Americans made progress despite heavy machine gun and artillery resistance on the part of the Germans, who continue their rearguard actions on the rugged hills and wooded districts, advancing steadily.

When they reached Chemery the troops had advanced slightly more than 27 miles, since the offensive east of the Meuse began, September 26.

BELGIUM BEING LOOTED

While Germany is Using One Hand in Suing for Peace the Other is Occupied in Robbing.

"Belgium is being looted by the Germans as the troops fall back, in spite of the denials on the part of the Huns" the Belgian Legation in Washington stated last night according to a cablegram which has been received from the Belgian government.

While one hand is suing for peace from the allies as the victorious Belgian, American and British armies advance through Flanders, Germany, with the other hand is robbing, and looting occupied Belgian as they retreat, the Belgium government stated.

Orders have been issued by the commanding officer of a Bavarian division ordering the total destruction of Belgium as the lines fall back, according to the interpretation placed upon them by the Belgian people.

"The question of supplies for our troops, heavily engaged at the front, must remain for us of paramount importance," the orders read. "For this reason the last draft horse, the last vehicle must be requisitioned and used to the greatest advantage."

"Commanders of the various units and men must take into account that the attitude of the population toward us has been completely modified. One must not now expect to find in the Belgians the same docility that has characterized them through the past years of our warfare. They must be considered strictly as the population of an enemy state with which we are at war."

"Therefore, it is particularly forbidden to assist the civilian population in any way; military interests alone should be considered. The products of the country must be utilized solely in our own interest."

SEIZE GERMAN FLEET

London, Nov. 7.—The whole German high seas fleet at Kiel (the chief German naval base) has been taken over by revolutionaries, said an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Copenhagen today.

The greater part of the naval units at Schleswig has been seized by mutineers also, the dispatch added.

A general strike has been proclaimed at Kiel, and the council of workmen and soldiers has taken over the administration of the city.

"Red" troops have occupied all of the Kiel workships.

The revolutionary troops at Keil are wearing red cockades and carry flaming banners. They control all of the railways and the street railways.

Kiel castle has been occupied by them, and the red flag has been hoisted on all of the German warships in the harbor.

A revolt has broken out in Hamburg and an artillery battle is raging in the streets, according to dispatchs received by the Politikkn.

The surgical dressing department of the Red Cross feels it is necessary to make a further appeal for workers. Owing to so many emergency calls they have not been able to finish the October allotment and they do not wish to fall below the splendid record they have established. Special attention of the army ladies is called to this appeal so that all may cooperate in this most essential work. The rooms at 806 Prince street are open both morning and afternoon every day in the week except Saturday and are open Wednesday and Friday evenings.

George E. Price and J. F. Cook will have on sale in the market, tomorrow morning, Jersey trout, lake trout, fresh haddock, fresh pollock, Phone 321 J. 265-1t.

FOR TORPEDO PLANT

Special Meeting of City Council Gives Government Four Feet on Cameron Street and Four on Fayette Alley.

At a called meeting of city council held last night both branches passed an ordinance giving the United States government the right to encroach four feet on Cameron street and four feet on Fayette alley, this land to be used by the government in making the square regular for the erection of the torpedo assembling plant soon to be constructed.

Before the ordinance was passed there was a joint session held at which time a letter was read from Mayor Fisher calling the meeting. Judge Samuel G. Brent addressed the joint session relative to the proposition, and he among other things said that the request of the government for the land was made through the Chamber of Commerce. It will be necessary for the government to secure this land in order that Alexandria may have the plant he said. An ordinance for the granting of the land prepared by H. Noel Garner, corporation attorney, at the request of Judge Brent, was then read.

City Engineer E. C. Dunn, explained that Fayette alley is thirty feet wide.

The joint session then dissolved and each branch passed the ordinance without any opposition.

Council also adopted a resolution employing Judge J. K. M. Norton to take an appeal to the state court of appeals in the decision handed down by the state corporation commission increasing the water rates. His suit is styled T. M. Jones and others against the Alexandria Water Company.

Will Appeal Water Case.

President H. R. Burke stated that in September a resolution was introduced to take an appeal. Attorney Brent he stated in the meantime was appointed judge of the circuit court for this circuit and it was supposed that Attorney H. W. Smith would plained had told him he would be unplaned had told him he would be unable to take up the case owing to other business and had suggested that Judge Norton be employed.

Councilman Baggett suggested that the finance committee let council know at once if judge Norton would accept the case to avoid further delay.

A resolution permitting the city to borrow $75,000, which is a temporary loan, was adopted.

SEDAN IS ENTERED BY AMERICAN FORCES

Sedan, famous in the Franco-Prussian war of 1870 has been entered by the American 1st Army. Today the Americans entered the section of the town on the west bank of the Meuse marking an advance of more than thirty-four miles since the offensive began on September 26.

Meanwhile the British, French and American troops elsewhere on the front between the Scheldt and the Meuse are pushing the Germans from the small section of France they still ocupy. Important gains are chronicled for the British in the north and the French in the center of the advancing allied lines, which moved forward six miles Wednesday.

Field Marshal Haig rapidly in clearin the Germans from that portion of France east and southeast of Valenciines. The British have smashed further through the enemy lines defending Mons and Maubeuge and are out flanked the German positions in Belgium, where the German commander at Ghent is evacuating the city. East and southeast of the Mormal forest the British also have made great border.

MEETING TONIGHT

United War Work Campaign Committee Will Complete Plans for Drive of Seven Great Agencies Which Will Begin Next Monday.

A meeting will be held tonight of the Chamber of Commerce War Workers when the general plans for the United War Work Campaign will be developed.

This campaign is being conducted by request from President Wilson which reads as follows:

"The White House,
Washington, Sept. 3, 1918.

My dear Mr. Fosdick:

May I not call your attention to a matter which has been recently engaging my thought not a little?

The War Department has recognized the Young Men's Christian Association, the Young Women's Christian Association, the National Catholic War Council, the Knights of Columbus, the Jewish Welfare Board, the War Camp Community Service, The American Library Association and the Salvation Army as accepted instrumentalities through which the men in the ranks are to be assisted in many essential matters of recreation and morale.

It was evident from the first, and has become increasingly evident, that the services rendered by these agencies to our army and to our allies are essentially one and all of a kind and must of necessity, if well rendered, be rendered in the closest cooperation. It is my judgment, therefore, that we shall secure the best results in the matter of the support of these agencies, if these seven societies will unite their forthcoming appeals for funds, in order that the spirit of the country in this matter may be expressed without distinction of race or religious opinion in support of what is in reality a common service.

This point of view is sustained by the necessity which the war has forced upon us, of limiting our appeals for funds in such a way that two or three comprehensive campaigns shall take the place of a series of independent calls upon the generosity of the country.

Will you not, therefore, as Chairman of the Commission on Training Camp Actvities, be good enough to request the societies in question to combine their approaching appeals for funds in a single campaign, preferably during the week of November 11, so that in their solicitation of funds as well as in their work in the field, they may act in as complete co-operation and fellowship as possible?

In inviting these organizations to give this new evidence of their patriotic co-operation, I wish it distinctly understood that their compliance with this request will not in any sense imply the surrender on the part of any of them of its distinctive character and autonomy, because I fully recognize the fact that each of them has its own tradition, principles, and relationships which it properly prizes and which, if preserved and strengthened, make possible the largest service.

At the same time, I would be obliged if you would convey to them from me a very warm expression of of the Government's appreciation of the splendid service they have rendered in ministering to the troops at home and overseas in their leisure time. Through their agencies the moral and spiritual resources of the nation have been mobilized behind our forces and used in the finest way, and they are contributing directly and effectively to the winning of the war.

It has been gratifying to find such a fine spirit of co-operation among all the leaders of the organizations I have mentioned. This spirit, and the patriotism of all the members and friends of these agencies, give me confidence to believe that the united war work compaign will be crowned with abundant success.

Cordially and sincerely yours,
(Signed) Woodrow Wilson.

Potomac Fish Co., will have on sale tomorrow and balance of week Jersey trout, Jersey butter fish, salt water croakers, large and medium haddock, steak cod, catfish, rock, Norfolk and river home shucked oysters fresh every day. Phone 198.

PEACE, SWEET PEACE!

Peace! thou source and soul of social life;
Beneath whose calm inspiring influence,
Science his views enlarges, Art refines,
And swelling commerce opens all her ports;
Blessed be the man divine, who gives us thee!

The world during the past few hours has been cast into paroxysms of joy by the announcement that Germany has signed an armistice on the terms set forth by the allies, and that the Huns have virtually surrendered. This means the beginning of the end of the fearful war which has wrecked cities and towns, torn up fruitful fields and brought woe and distress into so many heretofore happy homes. The sword will soon be returned to the scabbard, when men will begin to resuscitate the portns of the earth laid low by ravaging armies.

Alexandria entered into the joys of the occasion, and as soon as the new of the capitulatier of Germany reached this city the news was placed upon the bulletin board of the Gazette office and every passerby stopped and read the announcement with intense interest.

As had been anticipated, the siren whistle at the plant of the Virginia Shipbuilding Corporation shrieked forth, while bells of the city rang out in unison.

There was joy in the air, and the telephone into the Gazete office was kept hot answering the anxious queries put to us. The news sent thrills of delight into every soul.

Three weeks from today America will be observing her Thanksgiving Day. Heretofore this occasion has not appealed to the great majority as it will ths year. The hope that our boys will be with us Christmas may not prove to be vain.

Let us, however, not exult too extravagantly over our fallen foe. True, Germania is now in the dust, bleeding. "The Watch of the Rhine" will cause no enthusiasm in Berlin tonight, while the movement to erect a statute to Hindenburg in the Unter Den Linden will meet with a sudden check.

The modest and retiring Foch, who has shown such skill as commander-in-chief of the allies, will have a position in the hall of fame more prominent than that of Napoleon, who, up to this time, had been regarded as the greatest of all strategists who has appeared upon the earth.

Let us say a word in reference to the man of the hour, Woodrow Wilson, who, in scriptural language, seems to have come to the throne for such a time as this. The poet at the beginning of this article pays tribute to the man who brings sweet Peace. For reasons best known to themselves a slight majority of the voters of this country failed to show their appreciation of the noble services of our President during this frightful war. To his disappointment and that of every member of the political organization he represents their votes showed they did not endorse his policy. This is not the first time great men have not been appreciated as they should have been. "Who hath made thee a ruler and a judge over us?" was the question put to Moses, and "we will not have this man to reign over us" was uttered concerning One now worshipped by the civilized world. It will be so in the case of Woodrow Wilson. He is entitled to the place he now occupies in the galaxy of the great.

CLEAN THEM OUT

The Prince and Princess Troubetzkoy are contributing practical articles for the National Security League. These authors recently called attention to the fact that here are still Trotzkys in America. There are still Huns in America. You will know them by their talk of peace. No country was more pacific than America before she had to join the rest of the world in running down the bestial power of the Hun. At that time she even tolerated Bernstorffs, and Trotzky's, in her midst, for was she not strong enough to throw off any contamination? Even the contamination of Germany and Bolshevism? Besides, did not both of these stand for peace n America? Yes! just as they stood for peace in Russia; and see how under the emblem of the olive branch both of them have reduced Russia to a pen of massacre, rape and pestilence! They have used the hallowed name of peace as they have used the White Flag behind which they safely blast the Red Cross. They have used the name of peace until it means treachery. To such as these peace in America? Yes! just as they there is only one answer! "Clean them out! Clean the world of them!" And then—and not until then—peace will once again mean what it meant before they polluted the hallowed word in their foul mouths. Disinfected from their slaver, it will shine once more upon the world. But first we must clean the world of its desecraters.

Agnes Repplier, who also contributes articles for the National Security League says it is curiously significant of German methods, and of the German point of view, that the same day's dispatches which brought us Austria's first peace note should also have brought us word that a British passenger steamship had been torpedoed, and that ninety women and children had been drowned. Since when has piracy been accepted as legitimate warfare? Since when have pirates been invited to confer with civilized nations? That Germany should launch a peace offensive without mitigating her murderous U-boat policy, which forced this country into war, is possible only because she does not, and cannot, understand the essential differences between savagery and civilization. She is as unteachable as a tigress in a jungle.

"Peace by understanding" is a good phrase. It sounds better in our ears than peace by victory. But it implies confidence, and who confides in Germany? What people would trust its security to her honor? How many generations must live and die before her treaties will be accepted in good faith? Americans are fighting this war, not for their own safety only, but for the safety of their children, and of their children's children. It is a war to end wars, and, if this purpose be not gained, our men will have died in vain. A premature peace would mean giving Germany time and breath for another spring. And her next leap would be at our throat.

OLD STORY RECALLED

A man was seen standing in front of a statue of Jupiter in a museum on one ocasion. While gazing upon the conception of classic days he was seen to doff his hat in deference to the effigy. A bystander approached and asked him why he showed such courtesy to the statue. The man replied, "Well, the time may come when heathen mythology will again be the vogue, when I'll have a friend at court."

Von Buelow, at one time the German Imperial Chancellor, has published an article in the Norddeutsche Allegemeine Zeitung in which he pleads for the retention of the Kaiser The Prince says he considers the emperor's advocation of the new order of things in Germany is sincere.

LYNCH WOMAN'S ASSAILANT

C., Nov. 7.—The body of George Taylor, a negro, was found riddled with bullets yesterday morning hanging from a limb of a tree near Rolesville, 20 miles north of Raleigh, havng been lynched last night for the alleged criminal assault upon the wife of a prominent Wake County farmer. "FLU" EPIDEMIC

But State Health Board Expects Occasional Flare-Ups and Warns all to be Careful

Richmond, Nov. 7.—Reports received by the State Board of Health up to Tuesday indicated that the Spanish influenza had spent its course in practically all parts of Virginia, though occasional flare-ups of the disease may still be expected and the simple precautions urged in the earlier days of the epidemic should not be neglected now. While it is probable that most of the susceptibles by now have had the "flu" it will not pay to take anything for granted. Better by far will it be to exercise prudence until the dreaded malady becomes a mere memory. And in so doing the public will be protecting itself not only against the grippe but against all other spray-borne diseases.

The emergency hospitals established by the State Board at a number points which were in dire distress have been closed, and the third and fourth year medical students who did such fine work have all returned to their studies. They came back rich in experience and with the satisfaction of having unselfishly and courageously rendered services whose value could hardly be overestimated.

A few calls for help and advice are still coming in, but they represent local conditions and are about what might be expected. It has been necessary, for example, to send a representative of the State Board to the southern part of Brunswick county, where one of the two physicians in the Valentine neighborhood has died of influenza and the other is ill of the disease. This community, which is thickly settled, was without a doctor until help came from Richmond.

It is impossible that many people have grown weary of the injunction "Avoid crowds" but the warning still holds good and there is abundant proof that it pays to follow this precaution.

THE VOYAGE TO SALT RIVER

Large Ship in the Baltic Ready to Take Kaiser and Kaiserin Away

London, Nov. 7.—A Norwegian shipping magnate, passing through here on his way to Seattle, brought the story of a large ship lying in a German Baltic port with steam up continually, ready at a moment's notice to carry the kaiser and the kaiserin and other German royalty to Sweden, where a large castle has been secretly prepared as a refuge.

The castle is being closely guarded day and night.

My informant says Norwegian statesmen believe the allies will demand that, in case the kaiser flees to the Scandinavian kingdom, Sweden will surrender him. He adds the belief prevails that the allies would press this demand even to the point of declaring war if necessary.

My informant further asserts a coterie of influential German Jewish financiers who advanced tremendous sums for concessions of oils, iron and coal from Roumania and Russia, now see the whole prodigious gamble crumpling away, the concessions turning out to be worthless scraps of paper. They are now demanding their "pound of flesh" from the German imperial treasury, which is rocking under the financial crisis.

PRESIDENT'S NOTE

English Paper Says Germans Must First Recognize Defeat.

London, Nov. 7.—Commenting on President Wilson's note to Germany, the Westminster Gazette says:

"It implies that Germany shall, first according to the forms of war, recognize military defeat before we go on to the details of peace. That we believe to be grim necessity Germany has professed an unbounded belief in the sword and has committed her whole destiny to the fortunes of war. She must unlearn both the doctrine and practice of it."

"We can not leave her in a position to say that the German army remained undefeated in the great war. We must go as far as we can to the burden of making the first acknowledgment of defeat, not upon a government which can plausibly say that it had no responsibility for the war, but upon the military chiefs whose responsibility is open and flagrant. It is for Germany to consider whether by fighting on she can resist these terms.

"The great battles of the last few days and the spectacle of the German army retiring on a hundred-mile front faster than the allies can keep pace with it will probably be a more practical argument to the German soldiers in that respect than any that can be addressed to them on paper. In a significant scene yesterday the prime minister further reminded them of 'the great and final converging attack on Germany,' for which the way is made clear by the surrender of her partners and which must follow if events on the Western front are not sufficient.

"We greatly hope that the German government will come rapidly to the conclusion that its situation must grow worse if it prolongs a struggle which is plainly hopeless. The allies cannot falter in their determination to make an end of Prussian militarism, and there is no foundation for a peaceful future until that is accomplished beyond dispute on the battlefield. But this done, Germany will find her future like the rest of the world, in honest conformity with the new order, and we are glad to hear Lord Robert Cecil, speaking strongly and earnestly on behalf of the government, of its desire to apply itself with brain and heart to the building of a league of nations."

ALLIES CROSS FRONTIER

Attack on Berlin Likely to Follow—Germany Unable to Halt Blow

Amsterdam, via London, Nov. 7.—A Vienna dispatch late last night says that entente troops, by agreement of the Ausrto-Hungarian high command, have crossed the frontier at several points, cutting off the passage of troops that have not yet fled.

This action was taken, a statement issued at Vienna explains, in order to prevent further chaos and to assure the sending of the troops home in an orderly manner.

London, Nov. 7.—It is learned on high authority that an attack toward Berlin itself is being prepared by the allies through the door opened by Austria's surrender. Bohemia will be the base. The allied armies released by the elimination of the Macedonia front and the Italian forces now free for "operations elsewhere" will be utilized in the drive.

Germany is known to have insufficient troops to halt the blow even if she should be successful in withdrawing her Western line to the Meuse. This latter operation is doubtful of success, however, especially if good fighting weather keeps up for a few more weeks.

Field Marshal von Mackensen's six divisions trapped in Rumania will not reach Germany.

The British are now occuring Baku, the great oil city where 60,000 Armenians were slain after it was captured by the Turks.

200,000 TO RETURN

Many American Boys May be Home By Christmas

Gen. Pershing will be able to send back 200,000 American soldiers by Christmas if the allied terms of armistice are similar to those accepted by Austria and if Germany accepts the terms. There is reason to believe that the President by proclamation will declare that "the present emergency no longer exists" and will order the repatriation of the American soldiers soon after Germany has been made helpless to renew the war.

For the most part the American soldiers in France are enlisted for the duration of the war, or as the draft law reads, "for the present emergency." These men can be returned to the United States when the necessity of using them for garrisoning duty no longer exists. An army of some strength, known to army men as the "regulars" is enlisted for approximately seven years.

NEWS OF THE DAY

Ohio Tuesday entered the column of States where intoxicant liquors cannot be sold or purchased.

Nominations sent to the Senate yesterday included that of Percy M. Moir, of Virginia, to be associate justice of the Supreme Court of the Philippines.

Belated complete returns indicated that Speaker Clark has been re-elected by a plurality of 2,400 votes, an increase of 250 as compared with his election in 1916.

The destruction of the great Spandau artillery works by an explosion and fire is reported. No lives were lost. Spandau is a fortified town of Prussia, nine miles from Berlin.

The Democrats captured a seat in the United States Senate from Massachusetts Tuesday when former Gov. David I. Walsh, was elected by a plurality of 18,908 over Senator John W. Weeks.

The Chilean government today took possession of 84 German ships interned in Chilean ports. This action was taken to prevent the crews from sinking the vessels after having destroyed vital parts of the machinery.

The German Emperor has sent messages to the western army groups, thanking them for their "extraordinary achievements" and expressing his gratitude to the troops on the Oise and the Aisne, "whose bravery has frustrated the great plans of the enemy."

Newspapers of London have reproduced a map of English and Irish territorial waters showing positions of hundreds upon hundreds of ships the enemy alleges he has sunk by submarines. The map was issued as pro-submarine propaganda in Germany. The Daily Mail suggests that the map be used as a basis for reparation for loss of the ships.

Alfred E. Smith, Democratic andidate for governor of New York, is maintaining a lead of 12,000 over Gov. Whitman, his Republican opponent in the race for governor, last night, with only 51 districts missing out of the total of 7,230 in the State. The districts lacking are in remote rural sections up State and although they are normally Republican it seemed improbable that they could wipe out Mr. Smith's advantage. The vote stood: Smith, 987,242; Whitman, 974,873.

Germany has demanded the withdrawal of all Russian representatives in Germany, a Berlin dispatch announces. The German representatives in Russia, it is added, have been recalled. The Russian diplomatic representatives were to have left Berlin early yesterday by special train for Russia. The discovery of Russian revolutionary propaganda pamphlets, printed in German, in the baggage of a courier of the Russian embassy at Berlin, is probably the cause of the breaking off of diplomatic relations between Germany and the Russian soviet government.
